2 Thorndale Terrace, Watling Street
Radlett, Hertfordshire

 AVAILABLE END OF JANUARY 2020  Located on Watling Street these stunning new homes offer three bedroom accommodation with private gardens and off-street parking. Radlett village is a short distance away with its mixture of restaurants, delis and individual shops, as well as benefitting from having easy access into London via Thameslink into London St. Pancras.

Thoughtful architectural design has enabled the houses to utilise natural light. With a high, quality specification, Brook Mews fits perfectly into the affluent surrounding area categorising them into upmarket family homes built by Bellis Homes. This includes a Wilson Fink designed and fitted kitchen, featuring Quartz work surfaces and Siemens appliances, or similar. Additionally, specially designed, bespoke units have been added to create practicality and storage, with LED lighting strips providing further ambience lighting. The kitchens blend seamlessly into the ground floor accommodation with its engineered oak wood floor and underfloor heating. CAT 6 wiring throughout, with chrome switches and plates.

All living areas are versatile, open plan and designed for you to enjoy in a variety of ways. The master bedroom utilises the whole of the second floor, featuring its own dressing room with fitted wardrobes and a large en suite with a walk in shower. Bedroom two and three are of a good size, both fitting double beds in with ease. Bedroom three also has its designated dressing area with tailored wardrobes, while bedroom two features a Juliet balcony.
