| 1848 - 1931 |

In 1892 Thomas Lipton moved to Osidge, a 60-acre estate he called home for the next 50 years

Sir Thomas J Lipton is best known today for the tea brand that he founded – Lipton Tea – which is still much loved the world over. However, his life story is one of triumph over adversity, of passion and obsession, an inspirational tale of a boy from the streets of Glasgow who rose to entrepreneurial success and global fame, as a philanthropist, a sports ambassador, a yachting fanatic, and a grocery and tea mogul who counted royalty among his inner circle.

Born in 1848 in a four-room tenement in Glasgow, one of five siblings, young Thomas Lipton had a tenacity for advancement that saw him in trouble just as much as it saw him progress. Never in any job for long, he spent time as an errand boy, a shirt cutter and a cabin boy, an accountant, a farmhand and a door-to-door salesman. He worked on a rice plantation in Virginia, in tobacco fields in South Carolina and in a grocery store in New York on his travels before coming back to Glasgow to work in his family's store selling ham, eggs and butter, all by the age of 22.

He opened his own store, Lipton's Market, and through advertising stunts that included announcing he was importing the world's largest cheese wheel from New York which took 200 milkmaids 6 days to milk 800 cows to produce, he created spectacles that ensured the streets were lined for a parade each time he had a store to open or a product to promote. Seventeen years later he had 300 shops across the country, but he was only just getting started. Tea was his next target, previously the preserve of the upper classes, he bought tea plantations so he could keep costs low enough for working class families to afford tea for the first time. In the years that followed he expanded into coffee and cocoa estates, meat stores and bakeries in the UK and US.

Wealth and fame meant that Thomas Lipton could indulge in his passions. He helped to set up a charitable trust with Queen Alexandra, provided food and support to the poor and in the Second World War he gave his prized steam yacht, the Erin, on which he had many a lavish party over the years, to the Red Cross as a hospital ship. He supplied a 'Lipton' cup to clubs around the world for sailing, cricket, football and rowing, and he was so determined to win the America's Cup that he entered five times. Though he didn't actually win, he was finally added to the America's Cup Hall of Fame in 1993 for his tenacity.

In 1892 Thomas Lipton moved to Osidge, a 60-acre estate he called home for the next 50 years, a place of relaxation and fun, where he hosted parties for friends and business acquaintances, and annual sports days for his office staff. The house was redecorated from top to bottom, a billiards room constructed, and the stables enlarged for his prized carriage horses. He never thought he would like living 'down south' but in Osidge he found an oasis of calm and comfort that he enjoyed coming back to, his second favourite place to be aside from afloat on the Erin.
